MURRAY HILL BANK CLOSED

THE SUSPENSION ORDERED BY THE STATE BANK-

ING SUPERINTENDENT AFTER CONSULTA-

TION WITH THE DIRECTORS. The Murray Hill Bank, a State institution doing business at No. 764 Third-ave., was closed yesterday by order of the Superintendent of Banking, F. D. Kilburn. The president of the T. Hopkins, said that the closing was chiefly due to the silver agitation, and should furnish a severe object lesson to its depositors, are nearly all among the laboring classes. Kilburn ordered the closing because the ank's reserve had fallen from the 15 per cent liabilities, as required by law, to 13 per He said, however, that he felt certain that the depositors would be paid in full when the bank's affairs were cleared up. He issued the following statement:

the following statement:

I have closed the Murray Hill Bank because I thought it in an unsafe condition. I have taken this action after consultation with members of the Clearing House Committee and the Board of Directors. The trouble with the bank, so far as I have been able to ascertain, is that it has not sufficient money with which to do business, and no way of raising it. A great many of the assets are represented by real estate and other securities, which realized on without great sacrifice at presents it is my admin that the depositors will be pair in the bank, under the presidency of Mr. Hopsins, has been, in my opinion, conservatively managed, but the fact that it had accumulated such a large amount of unavailable assets has placed it in the position as above stated, where it has soit, and cannot get, sufficient ready money to continue business.

siness a meeting with the Board of Directors this and proposed to them that if they would once the sum of $100,000 and put it into the f the bank I would allow them to continue, this impossible, and, believing that further the in business would develop into a worse affairs. I deemed it advisable to close the once. The deposits amount to about $1,100.

The report on the annual examination of the bank by the State Bank Examiner, made on June to and 11, was only prepared for Mr. Kilburn in th President Hopkins and the directors, has een trying to nurse the bank's resources. Find ing this of no avail and seeing no way out of the ifficulties into which the institution had gotten tself, he ordered it closed. This action, he says took to prevent its utter collapse.

This, the two bank presidents said, would require $500,000, and they refused to do it, having no faith in the bank's ability to clear it-of the condition of its affairs." ASSETS AND LIABILITIES.

A statement of the bank's assets and liabilities was given out by Mr. Kilburn yesterday morning, as follows: RESOURCES.

$1,470,287.58 In the above statement of assets, it should be noted, Mr. Kilburn said that $300,000 of bills discounted were hypothecated; that the special loans, stocks and bonds, bonds and mortgages and the real estate were not quick assets, and consequently not available, and that what assets might prove available went to secure the loan of $84,000 from the National Bank of Commerce. The exchanges receivable were more than counterbalanced by the amount of Loan National Bank of Commerce.

The bank's trouble originated in investments by its former president, William A. Darling, who was interested in the real estate business. An unusual number of loans were placed in second real estate mortgages, and the affairs of the bank at the time of Mr. Darling's death, about a year and a half ago, were in a bad way. After a short interim Mr. Hopkins was called to the presidency of the institution. The testimeny of Mr. Kilburn, of several directors and of other bank men credits Mr. Hopkins with having taken hold of a bad job and having administered it faithfully and conservatively. Not $100, they say, has been lost to the bank in the fairs. They agree, however, that it would have been next to impossible for any man to pull the bank completely out of its financial difficulties. Mr. Hopkins, in speaking of the bank's failure, said:

"I have tried to bring to the management of the bank honesty in all transactions. I feel, and the testimony of others agrees with me. that if I could have had control of the bank's affairs for a longer time the crisis would not have come. And then, to add to these internal troubles, there came the crazy silver agitation. As an example of the feeling created by this talk of the West, a depositor came to me one day and wished to draw out $40,000 in gold, which he said he intended to place in English consols. Other depositors, since Bryan's nomination, have come to draw out their deposits in gold. As a consequence, the bank's deposits have not increased as they should have done." One of the loans of the bank, made under Mr.

Darling's direction, was of $122,000, secured by a second mortgage on a block of flats uptown which had cost $175,000 to build on two lots which were not worth more than $35,000, and this property already had a first mortgage upon it of $100,000. Such was an example, Mr. Kilburn, said, of the way the bank's investments had been made under the old regime. Another investment was one of $56,000 in the stock and bonds of the Bavarian Brewing Company. AMOUNT OF DEPOSITS.

The total number of depositors in the bank is 17,000, with $1,172,565 54 deposited. During the months of June and July there was deposited about $200,000, but more than this amount was withdrawn. There was, Mr. Kilburn said, $175,000 in quick assets withdrawn from investment and placed in second mortgages from investment and placed in second mortgages on real estate, which could not fail to cripple the bank's ability to meet démands.

The Murray Hill Bank was organized in 1878 by its late president, Mr. Darling, and has been considered a strong institution. It has had only one previous setback in its career, when, about two years after its organization, it suspended payment. Confidence in the bank was quickly restored, however.

The officers of the bank are: F. T. Hopkins, president; W. D. Bruns, vice-president; Aibert H. Gale, cashier, and William C. Bryant, assistant cashier. The directors are Rufus M. Stivers, John Weber, James Carney, Bernard Metzger, Ferdinand T. Hopkins, Philip Diehl, Robert N. Ford, Charles H. Heimburg, Frederick T. Steinway, Thomas McManus and William D. Bruns.

erick T. Steinway, Thomas McManus and William D. Bruns.

H. C. Fahnestock, vice-president of the First National Bank, said the closing of the Murray Hill Bank was a great surprise. From the way its accounts had been running of late it was supposed that it was doing a profitable business. It had made no requests whatever of the First National for accommodation. Its balance with the First National was sufficient to cover its clearings for several ordinary days. its clearings for several ordinary days. NO EFFECT ON STOCKS.

The closing of the bank was utterly without effect on the stock market. The bank did no business downtown. Among bank officers the in the metropolitan district which operate with small capital. The bank's stock had been quoted of late at 140 A great deal regarding the bank was known to a good many real estate brokers. Some brokers declare that it was ridiculous to attribute the bank's failure to real estate deals of a legitimate kind, when mortgages for nearly the full value of real estate could be placed. One brokvalue of real estate could be placed. One broker called up an uptown bank which was supposed to be thoroughly versed in Murray Hill Bank matters and asked the cause of the fail-posed to be thoroughly versed in Autray Hill Bank matters and asked the cause of the fallure. The answer was, "Dry rot."

A well-known broker, who was formerly a depositor in the bank, said: "I drew out my money a few years ago. I did not like the manner in which William A. Darling was handling the bank. I had an idea that there was too much dealing in real estate in a manner which the head of a bank could not safely pursue.
The present management has done the best it could, under the circumstances, I have no doubt, but it had inherited too large a load to manage."

Two of the directors of the bank were spoken of by well-informed real estate dealers as being men of large wealth. Thomas McManus, one of these, was a police captain in John Kelly's day.
He retired from the force and became a builder.
In real estate circles he is reputed to have considerable wealth. He owns two block fronts in Third-ave., not far from the Murray Hill Bank; has five or six pleces of property with new buildings at the southwest corner of Fifth-ave, and One-hundred-and-fourteenth-st., and owns property in One-hundred-and-sixteenth-st., near Fifth-ave.

Bernard Metzger, another director of the bank, is put down as having considerable wealth, made in the cattle business. He is not the real estate dealer of that name.

Mr. Kilburn will now make his report to the Attorney-General, who will appoint a receiver.

WESTERN BANKS GO UNDER.

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 11.-The Security Bank of Duluth, one of the largest State banks in the State, osed its doors this morning. Two notices were posted on the door, one reading:

Heavy and unlooked-for withdrawals of deposits and the impossibility of making speedy collections have compelled us to close our doors. We think de-positors need have no fear regarding the ultimate W. P. LARDNOR, Cashier.

The other notice reads:

In my official capacity as Superintendent of Banks of the State of Minnesots. I have taken possession of the books, records and assets of every description of this bank, as provided by law.

M. D. KENYON, Examiner.

The capital stock of the bank was $100,000, and its surplus $40,000. Its last statement showed total reprofits on hand. The total deposits on July 22, the date of the bank's last statement, were $329,324.

date of the bank's last statement, were $22,324. None of the officers of the bank will talk about the bank's affairs further than to say that they expect to pay all deposits in full.

The failure has caused considerable excitement, and further failures are feared. The bank was organized in 1889, with Joseph Sellwood, president, and F. W. Paine, cashier. The capital stock is $100,000, surplus, $40,000, and average deposits, $455,000. Chicago, Aug. II.—The private bank of North & Taylor, No. 350 West Madison-st., was closed this morning. No statement has as yet been made.

DENTON-CROKER MORTGAGES.

An interesting series of mortgages was filed in the Register's office yesterday. By the first of these Henry M. Denton gives a mortgage for $56,000 to Richard Croker upon property on the south side of One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st., beginning 347.6 feet west of Fifth-ave. The plot is 62x100.10 feet. The mortgage is to run for five years. Mr. Denton gives a second mortgage upon the same property for the same length of time to Mr. Croker $20,000. A third mortgage is recorded as being made 20,000. A third mortgage is recorded as being made by Mr. Denton on the same property to Adeline Newburger, for one year, in the amount of $27,000. Mr. Denton gives a fourth mortgage for $8,500 on the same property, for one year, to Henry Morgenthau, a well-known real-estate man. This makes a total of $109,500.

Last week Mr. Denton bought from Mr. Croker Nos. 34, 35 and 35 West One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st., these being on the south side of the street, and Nos. 31 and 33 West One-hundred-and-twenty-fourth-st., abutting on the other property. There has been much discussion of the price paid, some placing it as low as $100,000, only $4,000 more than Mr. Croker paid for the five parcels in 1889.

The mortgaged property lies just east of that purchased last week, and has been owned by Mr. Denton for some time. He has his offices thore. The total amount of the mortgages may be an indication of the sum paid in the recent purchase.

THE TRADE IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Aug. 11 (Special).-There was a story abroad that Armour contemplated the delivery of a large quan-tity of cash wheat on September contracts for the pur-pose of securing funds with which to operate in the local by two outside bank failures made a weak wheat mar-ket. It also caused a widening of the September-Decem-ber spread from 1% to 1% cents a bushel. Foreign mar-kets were notably stronger as the result of yesterday's Government rop report, while the Northwestern market was extremely weak. There were strong spots occasion-ally, one of which was due to the prediction of a light frost in North Dakota to-night and another in Bradstreet's report of a decrease of 2,426,000 hushels in the world's available supply. Exports equal to 365,000 hushels also helped. Cash wheat sales here were limited to 30,000 hushels in small lots to millers. Out of the 281 cars received locally, only three graded centract, while 114 were 4 and no grade. Northwest receipts were 455 cars, against 305 last week and 170 last year. The local out-impection was 180,000 hushels, estimated receipts for to-morrow 435 cars.

There was heavy selling of September corn by all classes of holders, but particularly by the South. Lamson Bros. 4 to, dumped fully 500,000 hushels September.

morrow 435 cars.

There was heavy selling of September corn by all classes of holders, but particularly by the South. Lamson Bros. & Co. dumped fully 500,000 bushels September for New-Orleans. It was cooler throughout the West and Southwest and the trade is counting on record-breaking recepts during next week. On account of the intense heat local elevator people are having great trouble in getting their cars unloaded. Recepts were 1,247 cars, with 620 estimated for to-morrow. September corn opened and closed at 273, cents, and the day's range was from 234, to 234,6235, cents.

Geddes-Kirkwood sold September cats steadily all day and many other holders followed their example. The result was c widening of the September-May suread to 34, cents. September oats opened at 165, sold down to 165 and closed at 164, cents asked.

Receipts of hogs were only 6,600 head, where 11,000 were expected and prices at the yards were up 5 to 10 cents. The estimate for to-morrow is 16,600 head, Shoris caused a sharp little advance in prices. They then pulled out of the market and prices dropped below yeaterday's closing level. September pork opened at 56,00 sold to $6.15, then off at the close to $6.15, Cetober and January each lost 10 cents, lard made a gain of 25, to 5 cents, while riths were unchanged to 25, cents lower.
